

HUMBER
The Business School

The Dean's Message

January was a great month for unleashing success at The Business School. From faculty to students to alumni, we are business at its very best! Be sure to share your accomplishments with us throughout February to share in our next edition.

For submissions, visit business.humber.ca/content-submission and choose "The Dean's Newsletter".

This is an interactive pdf*

Award-winning Faculty & Students

Bernie Aron, Program Coordinator, Paralegal Studies has been awarded the John and Suanne Roueche Excellence Award. Nominated for his exceptional focus on teaching and learning excellence, he will be honoured at The League of Innovations annual conference in Chicago in March 2016.

Read more >

Humber DECA had an amazing success at Provincials bringing home 3 medals. Paulina Pedziwiatr won 2nd place in second role-play, 2nd place in multiple-choice testing, as well as 1st place overall in Fashion Merchandising Category. Each of our delegates scored between high 80-90% overall which is a huge success!

Watch for upcoming stories in future editions.

Success Stories

Graduate of the Paralegal Studies program appointed to the Law Society's Equity Advisory Group

At the age of 18, Fallon Burns entered the doors of Humber to begin her education, four years later she graduated with Honours and has since become a member of the Ontario Paralegal Association, was elected to their Board of Directors and founded of the Paralegal Cup Mooting Competition. She is now just 22 years old.

Read more >

Journalism meets Fashion at Humber

Up and coming Media Studies journalism student and make-up artist, Pilozo-Melara brings her two worlds together covering Fashion news at The Business School with the launch of Dan Liu's winter fashion collection.

Read her event coverage in Humber News >

Alumni Highlight

We are so proud of our students, see where our HR Degree graduates are now.

Read stories >

Event Coverage

Ambassador visits SEDS

The Canadian Ambassador to Indonesia visited our SEDS project in Sulawesi this past month, everyone was excited to meet the Ambassador. The program was full of Manado charm, the Expo was robust and the Ambassador, Head of Aid and Dept Director (from Ottawa) participated by voting on the best business and awarding Canadian flag pins.

Advertising - Media Management

Jan 28 - The AMM alumni event was successful, "I always love seeing our grads and hearing how their career launch and lives in general have been going!", said Joyce Lamb. Our grads were extremely helpful and inspiring.

Faculty Help Beyond the Classroom

Jan 29 - The Mentoring Partnership at the TRIEC, together with the Department of Community Outreach and Workforce Development organized the Info session for recruitment of new Humber mentors. Parveen Gill, Program Coordinator, Business Management, was invited.

Read her story >

International Business Job Market

Feb 10 - IB Students are invited to come and meet their Program Advisory Committee members, successful graduates and ask questions to an industry panel.

Read more >