International News

Inbound exchange students: Fall 2015

Humber will welcome 11 exchange students from our partner institutions abroad for Fall 2015 semester studies. All students will reside in our Lakeshore Residence and study in the Business School.

Outbound exchange students: Fall 2015

We continue to push study abroad opportunities to our students as a way of broadening their horizons. This year four of our Fashion Management degree students will be studying at Robert Gordon in the UK.

Student Success

Marketing Management Postgrad student Cole Harris landed a full-time job in sales at MLSE.

The Department of Justice Canada (DOJC) and the Tax Law Services Department held a reception to thank the 10 Humber Paralegal Studies degree students.

The Institute of Public Administration Canada announced at its Annual Conference in Halifax that the recipient of the 2015 Promising New Professional Award is Business School graduate Monica Rondon.

This past summer seven Professional Golf Management students/graduates passed the test and turned pro.

One of our Spa Management students was offered a full-time position while working at an event at the TIFF Film Festival.

Check out the MADE YOU LOOK BOOK that shows off the talented work of our fashion students.
