The Dean's Message

Connections, connections, connections! That is what networking is all about. A big shout-out to the Work-Integrated Learning team for all the events in February that brought so many potential employers and students together.

This was truly a fashionable February, with Fashion students sharing tips with other business students on how to dress for success, as well as joining fashion-forward webinars and taking a first step into the Metaverse.

Our students also had many reasons to celebrate this past month. A Hospitality –Hotel and Restaurant Operations Management student was accepted into a unique food entrepreneurship program, while a Travel and Tourism Management alumni was featured in a major trade publication. In celebration of the best of business, our scholarship winners also share their stories through a Q&A.

Reflecting on current world events, a faculty member opens up their home for home-cooked Ukrainian meal to support students.

Read on to find out why you should launch your business career here.
