DEAN'S MESSAGE

Alvina Cassiani | Senior Dean
Longo Faculty of Business

As we embark on a new term, we are already brimming with the promise of fresh beginnings and renewed aspirations. We are delighted to share with you the achievements within our community that exemplify business at its best.

Congratulations to Maria Rausch, a Bachelor of Paralegal Studies student, for earning the Top Oralist Award at the prestigious University of Toronto Cup international undergraduate mooting competition. Her dedication and skill are a reflection of the talent within our community.

Our students at the Longo Centre for Entrepreneurship have demonstrated exceptional entrepreneurial acumen through a series of hackathons. These events highlighted the power of collaboration and purpose-driven innovation, underscoring our commitment to providing hands-on learning experiences that lead to meaningful, real-world impact.

This month, we also witnessed exemplary collaborative ventures, including Conflict Resolution students leading a series of workshops for their peers in the Bachelor of Science - Nursing program, as well as Fashion Management and Digital Business Management students showcasing their creativity in the Fashion History Museum project.

Read on for more highlights, from enriching field trips to inspiring graduate success stories, as we continue to celebrate the accomplishments of our vibrant community.

WE ARE BUSINESS AT ITS BEST™
