

WE ARE BUSINESS AT ITS BEST

BUSINESS

This is an interactive pdf*

The Dean's Message

Congratulations to the Faculty of Business community on completing another strong, successful academic year. Many students and staff ended the year on a high note with prestigious awards and accolades from peers and professionals in the industry, including a Gold win at Skills Canada and two faculty members receiving Humber's Innovation of the Year Award. Additionally, this summer, Fashion students have the one-of-a-kind opportunity to complete their work experience in Italy.

To our graduating students, we know the hard work, creativity, and professionalism you have all demonstrated during your time at Humber. This dedication will continue to be one of your greatest assets in the job market, and in your career.

Be sure to share your successes in the Dean's Newsletter. For submissions, visit business.humber.ca/content-submission and choose "The Dean's Newsletter".

Humber Professor Wins People's Choice Award

This year's Showcase "Shift" was a successful professional development day and thank you to everyone from the Faculty of Business for their workshops and support. The Showcase Committee were pleased to announce that Ramesh Srinivasan was this year's People's Choice award winner for his workshop 'Can I get a decent wine for under $10 dollars, Really?' Congratulations Ramesh!

Humber Hosts Chefs from Around the Globe for the Worldchefs Americas Regional Semifinal Competition

Congratulations to Francis Derick Flores the Worldchefs Challenge Gold winner from Canada, who will go on to represent the Americas in Russia 2020 at the Worldchefs Congress. The competition was hosted at Humber and four lucky Humber Culinary students were chosen to support the competition and network with Worldchefs Level A judges.

Read more >

Humber and Fontys Collaborate on COIL Pilot Project

A group of four students from Humber College, along with Professor and Program Coordinator, Hanadi Alnawab, commenced a Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL) pilot project between Humber and Fontys Academy for Creative Industries in The Netherlands.

Read more >

Fashion Placement Abroad in Italy

This summer 25 Fashion Arts and Business diploma students are completing their Field Placements abroad in Florence in partnership with FUA (Florence University of the Arts). The fashion business students are managing a boutique in the heart of Florence, FLY – Fashion Loves You.

Read more >

How the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) Makes Me a More Effective Teacher

At the annual conference for the Society of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education (STLHE) held in Winnipeg, MB June 11 to 14 I had the privilege of representing the Faculty of Business.

Read more >

Two Faculty of Business Professors Awarded Humber's Innovation of the Year Award

The purpose of the Innovation of the Year Awards is to recognize college employees who have designed and implemented significant innovations that positively impact the education of students at Humber College Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning.

Read more >

Humber Student Publishes Financial Help Book

Elizabeth Abols, a student in the Business Administration Co-Op Program, has written a new book, titled Make Money the SMART Way. The book, which launched in June, has already won an award - "Helping Teens Become Successful" from the 10-10-10 Program.

Read more >

Business Marketing Grad Becomes Content and Marketing Manager at WheelsUpNetwork

Kate Ivchenko loves building marketing campaigns. Whether it's launching a new product or simply building engagement, she's fascinated by it all. She's thrilled when the results pan out and credits the Business Humber Marketing program with the skills needed at WheelsUpNetwork.

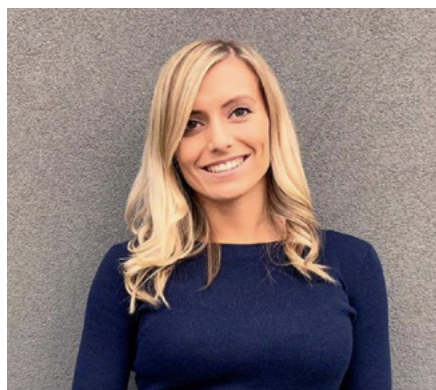

While studying full-time, Kate interned with Caribbean Bride, Digital Coconut, and the St. Kitt's Tourism Authority where she honed her skills in database marketing, prospecting, product launch and presentations, event and experiential marketing. These first real jobs in marketing provided her with the hands-on experience that is so valuable for the job search after graduation.

Read more >

Humber Hosts 12th Annual Stone Soup Cook-off

On May 27th, students representing local high schools competed in the Stone Soup Cook-off hosted in Humber's Culinary Labs and judged by members of Toronto Police Service's 12 Division and Toronto Public Health.

Read more >

Fashion Management Student Completes her Sustainability Internship in Denmark

Following the February visit of Rossie Kadiyska, Fashion Management and Promotions Program Coordinator, to Copenhagen School of Design and Technology, the first Fashion Management postgraduate student Karli Ihasz completed her sustainability internship in Denmark.

Read more >

Hospitality Event Management Student Wins Gold at Skills Canada

When Heather Brock and Kyla Golea were asked to enter the Restaurant Services competition, little did they know what was in store for them.

Read more >

Faculty of Business Professor Publishes Book

Nabeel Mandahawi, a professor of Supply Chain Management, along with his co-authors

Mariam Bader, Omar Al-Araidah, and Al Theeb, published a book titled "A Study of Deficiencies in Teamwork Skills among Healthcare Caregivers using Total Quality Management", published in April by LAP LAMBERT Academic. In this book, the authors investigate the factors that influence teamwork in the healthcare sector in order to suggest improvement strategies using TQM principles.

Read more >

Culinary Students Provide Live-Action Dessert Presentation

This past June, Baking and Pastry Arts students, along with Professor and Program Coordinator, Joe Kumar, provided a live-action dessert presentation at the European Union and Canada Cluster luncheon meeting. The students demonstrated for the delegates from the European Union and Canada the finishing of Chocolate Bonbons and live-action chocolate enrobing.

Students and Alumni Attend “Celebrating Your Success” Paralegal Networking Event

Celebrating Your Success, a paralegal networking and reunion event, took place in the Humber Room on Thursday, May 23, 2019. Approximately 85 students from the Paralegal Education program and the Paralegal Graduate Certificate program who will be graduating in 2019 attended this year's event in order to learn more about some of the unique and interesting opportunities in the paralegal field.

Read more >

The last Business School convocation was a record breaker with over 2000 students graduating over 2 ceremonies. Convocation is the culmination of all of the amazing work that our faculty and students put in throughout the year. We all return in the Fall 2019 ready to take on new challenges as we continue our transformation from The Business School to the Faculty of Business!