

WE ARE UNLEASHING AMBITION

BUSINESS

HUMBER

The Business School

The Dean's Message

I would like to welcome everyone back for the beginning of a brand new year, a new semester and a new set of goals. Aim high, unleash your ambition and be sure to share your accomplishments with us. Take a look through this December edition to see how we wrapped up 2015!

For submissions, visit business.humber.ca/content-submission and choose "The Dean's Newsletter".

This is an interactive pdf*

We Are Making An Impact

Supporting Children and Youth in Bolivia with Save the Children International

Public Administration graduate Maria, enrolled in the Global Citizenship Certificate program and the IYIP program and is currently working in La Paz, Bolivia with "Save the Children International". This program supports the "Children Lead the Way" project that includes technical training for youth and promoting flexible and relevant education models for children.

Read more >

Success Stories

Humber Was Well Represented At 2015 Paralegal Cup

The 2015 Paralegal Cup mooting competition took place on November 21st and 22nd at Lakeshore campus. Humber's Paralegal Education diploma program was well represented by two teams: Angelie Mayne and Stephe-Lea Tabujara (coached by faculty Kamini Steinberg and Melanie Shulman) and Pan Dong and Adam Pearce (coached by faculty Jason Kohn and Anita John).

Beautiful Baroque Fashion Window

Events

Humber Cafe Wars

On December 9th, 2015, Humber's Business Administration and Business Management students gathered their teams together and got down to business in the inaugural Cafe Wars competition.

Find out who won >

Business Admin Student Enjoys Diversity in Education

Business Admin student involved in everything from local Cafe Wars to outwitting tigers in rural India.

Read more >

Innovation Fair and Impact Fair

Students, practitioners, researchers and partners rallied at the annual Innovation Fair to focus on social entrepreneurship as it relates to creating a sustainable world for children and youth.

Read more >

New Fashion Windows

BEAUTIFUL BAROQUE – Students from Fashion Arts, Fashion Management, Graphic Design, Electrical Engineering and Creative Photography, proudly unveiled their most recent creation at The Fashion Institute on December 6th, 2015.

Read more >

WE ARE

UNLEASHING AMBITION

Business School grad hits the Ellen DeGeneres show!

Former Humber Business School student Jade Jager hits the big time with an appearance on the Ellen DeGeneres show! Jade and her eight dancers from her Hip Hop Academy were flown out by Ellen to perform on her Dec. 4th show after producers saw their Dance Video to Missy Elliott's WTF (Where They From) on Youtube. Jade is a former graduate of the Fashion Arts program and has also been represented in Business School success stories. Says Dean, Alvina Cassiani, "You made it Jade!"

Jade was also interviewed on Virgin Radio and appeared on CTV Canada AM. Read more and see the video everyone is talking about.

Read more >

Check out the video >

