

WE ARE UNLEASHING
AMBITION

BUSINESS

The Dean's Message

Welcome back to a new academic year. The Business School continues to foster a community of innovation, growth and academic differentiation. We do so through professional development, creativity, industry partnerships and student achievements. Our greatest strength as a business school is the enrichment we provide our students through hands-on learning, which is provided by our accomplished and industry-experienced faculty and staff. Read more >

Be sure to share your successes in the Dean's Newsletter. For submissions, visit business.humber.ca/content-submission and choose "The Dean's Newsletter".

This is an interactive pdf*

All Work And No Play? The Ningbo Students From China Have Arrived At Humber

Students from the Humber-Ningbo partnership program had a busy August after arriving in Toronto on July 31st. Participation in the five-week Orientation Program had students strengthening both their English-language and academic skills.

Read more >

New Faculty Announcements

As this new academic year begins, we're excited to welcome new and returning faculty to The Business School. These professors all share a passion for teaching, an extensive list of academic credentials and years of experience working in high-ranking roles in fields like Marketing, Law, Finance and more. The faculty members joining us this year include Fabian Marks, Steve Lorini, Emily Gaszynski and Jeffery Nicholson. Welcome to the team!

Read more >

The Business School just received confirmation that the Paralegal Graduate Certificate program will launch in Winter 2018.

International Development Student Meets Prime Minister Justin Trudeau

This summer, International Development student, Nathaniel Taylor, had the opportunity and privilege of meeting and speaking with Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau.

Read more >

Employer Appreciation 2017 Open House & Social

The Humber Business School Placement Centre, along with our students, would like to invite you to drop in for an Open House and Social. Learn more about our Bachelor of Commerce and Applied Arts Honours Degrees and the exciting innovations happening at Humber College.

Read more >

Humber Business Faculty Member Volunteers At Mongolian University

Sanjukta Das, a Business Placement Advisor at the School of Business, could have spent her annual vacation relaxing at the beach, sightseeing abroad or reading a good book. But, instead, she decided to convert her three weeks of relaxation into an exciting, meaningful and life-changing experience.

Read more >

Developing Empathetic Youth Leaders in the Leadership Beyond Boundaries Summer Program

In July 2017, The Business School welcomed students from our academic partners, Parul University in India and IMC University of Applied Sciences in Krems, Austria, to a two-week Leadership Beyond Boundaries program.

Read more >

Fashion Management Degree Students Apply Their Experience During Capstone Course

Students in the Fashion Management degree program completed their capstone course this past spring. The course was a major undertaking for the students, as they had to apply the knowledge, skills and experience they acquired throughout their years of study.

Read more >

The Business School Offers Degree Pathway for all Ontario Paralegal Students

The Business School has received approval from the Law Society to allow graduates of paralegal education (Diploma) programs from accredited institutions in Ontario, to be granted advanced standing to enter into year three of the accredited Paralegal Education (Degree) program offered by The Business School.

Read more >

Business Professor Volunteers with GENET in Blantyre, Malawi

This past August, Ionela Bacain, a Business School Professor and Program Coordinator of the Bachelor of Commerce Accounting program, travelled to Blantyre, Malawi as a Leave for Change volunteer.

Read more >

Business School Faculty Travel to European Partner Institutions

Four Business School faculty members participated in faculty exchanges between March and May, 2017. Lynn McAuliffe, Melanie Shulman, Maria Racanelli and Mike Dover each had the exciting opportunity to spend upwards of a week at partner institutions in Denmark, The Netherlands and Austria.

Read more >

Business School Alumnus Excels in Public Administration Career

Jason Stanley was a student in the Public Administration Graduate Certificate Program. Since graduating in 2005, Jason has gained a breadth of experience from a number of progressively senior capacities in multiple ministries. Most recently, Jason accepted an acting assignment as Assistant Deputy Minister, Strategy, Stewardship and Program Policy Division. Congratulations Jason on your success!

Ningbo Faculty And Staff Learn Design Thinking Methodology And Project-Based Learning

The faculty and staff of the Humber-Ningbo program participated in a professional development session to learn about the Design Thinking Methodology and Project-Based Learning as a way to better engage students.

Read more >