The Dean's Message

So much can happen in a year. Many of our students came to The Business School a year or two ago with their career goals, and now, those goals are becoming a reality. In this newsletter, you'll see many instances of our students securing full-time positions, taking their educational career to the next level, or being awarded prestigious awards. And to think, in just a couple of months, that cycle of success will begin once again. Congratulations to all of our faculty and students on another successful academic year! Read more >

Be sure to share your successes in the Dean's Newsletter. For submissions, visit business.humber.ca/content-submission and choose "The Dean's Newsletter".

Humber Spa | Evaluapp

Problem: Feedback to students at a critical point in any project is crucial in any learning experience. This mobile tablet tool enables faculty to quickly in a paperless digital format evaluate in process class work and provide a pdf feedback after class to help students move forward in a project/assignment context.

- View Report: Give Me of every part from student
- Create Evaluation: Assign and evaluate the specific students' work
- Export PDF and Email: Generate report for process right after assignment submission
- Enable Student Review and Assessment: Students can provide feedback on their work

Solution: This Humber Spa Evaluapp has been specifically designed to be adapted and used with any number section or program that requires Evaluations and Assessment in a classroom or in-process project/assignment.

Early Testing with faculty are finding this tool easy to use and quick to set up.
